REPRESENTATIVE APPEALS OF FIRST IMPRESSION

S.T. v. School Board of Seminole County, 783 So.2d 1231 (Fla. 5th DCA 2001) (Case No. 5D00-2569). Represented parent of public school student who sought review of dismissal of her petition for writ of prohibition. In a case of first impression, the Fifth DCA held that an administrative law judge in an Exceptional Student Education due process hearing lacked authority to order discovery, reversing the trial court.

Wiley v. Roof, 641 So.2d 66 (Fla. 1994). Appealed holding that subsequent legislation can resuscitate an extinguished cause of action, without violating a defendant's due process guaranties. The Florida Supreme Court reversed, deciding the issue, unique in the United States, that the defendant's right to the time bar defense is a constitutionally-protected property right which vests when the limitations period then applicable to the cause of action in question runs.

The Tribune Co. v. DML and Anclote Manor Hospital, 566 So.2d 1333 (Fla. 2d DCA 1990). Appeal won for hospital opposing access of news reporter to involuntary placement hearing of mentally ill patient, challenging confidentiality of medical records guaranteed by Florida Statute § 394.459(9), another issue of first impression in Florida.

Hill v. Winn Dixie, 699 F.Supp. 876 (M.D.Fla. 1988); 721 F.Supp. 1226 (M.D.Fla. 1989); 1989 WL 151723 (M.D.Fla.); 1990 WL 126471 (M.D.Fla.). Established plaintiff's right to trial by jury in a juror protection case, a case of first impression in the United States. Won substantive case both before jury and on appeal of trial court's judgment notwithstanding the verdict, in Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

In re Guardianship of Barry, 445 So.2d 365 (Fla. 2d DCA 1984). Represented state on appeal of termination of life support of minor child, making new law nation-wide regarding ability of parents to substitute judgment for child in determining whether to terminate child's life support.

Dallas I Construction & Development v. Carolco Industrial Services, Inc. et al., Hillsborough County Circuit Court Case No. 94-1872-B. Rendered expert opinion regarding conflict of interest by attorney who wanted to represent successive defendants with conflicting positions.
